OFFICE OF THE

BOARD OF STATE CHARITIES,

STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, October 15, 1875.

To Overseers of the Poor:—

GENTLEMEN,—

The legislature will probably desire information next winter as to the success of the towns and cities of the State during the past season in dealing with vagrants or tramps. Such facts as I can obtain I intend to present in my Annual Report, and I shall be greatly obliged for any assistance you can give me. Among the Acts passed last spring was one of which the following is a full copy:

Be it enacted, &c.: The overseers of the poor of any city or town, or keepers of almshouses acting under their directions, may require any person, not a resident of said town or city, applying to them for and receiving from them food and lodging or either in an almshouse or other place, to perform a reasonable amount of labor in return for such food and lodging, and may detain such person until the same is performed, but not beyond the hour of eleven in the forenoon of the day succeeding his application; and if any such person shall refuse or neglect when so required to perform such labor suited to his age, strength and capacity, or wilfully damage any of the property of such town or city in the charge of such overseers or other officers, he shall be deemed a vagrant within the meaning of the statutes relating to vagrants and vagabonds, and may be prosecuted and punished in the manner provided by chapter two hundred and fifty-eight of the acts of the year eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, or as otherwise provided by law.—[Approved March 24, 1875.

Has your town put this law into operation? What work have you been able to provide for the tramps? To what extent has the enforcement of the Act reduced the number of tramps applying to the authorities for lodgings or meals? Has the effect of enforcement been to keep them away from your town, or only to increase the number applying for aid at private houses? On these and any other points as to the working of the law I shall be glad to get light. The experience of one board of overseers who have made an effort to enforce the law, will be worth more as a guide to the legislature than the theorizing of a score of men who are without experience. Therefore, I particularly wish answers to this circular from towns or cities in which an effort at enforcement has been made.

And I desire suggestions from overseers generally as to the amendment of this or any other law relating to vagrants or tramps. The care and support of this class of persons has become a great burden upon the community. Do we need more law for dealing with them, or more enforcement of the law now existing? That many deserving persons out of work are travelling in search of employment, is a fact known to every observant man,—this circular relates to men who do not wish to get work, but prefer to live by roving about and begging.

Be good enough to give me before the end of this month a reply hereto, at such length as you please, that I may have the benefit of your knowledge and judgment in preparing my report.

Very respectfully yours,

SIDNEY ANDREWS,
Secretary Board State Charities.
